

TRADITIONAL KOTA AND WILDERNESS DINING

Enjoy a delicious meal surrounded by nature.

Meals are always more enjoyable when shared in the midst of nature. The traditional kota and outdoor fire pit at Nuutajärvi Glass offer a tranquil and scenic setting for a memorable dining experience.

MENUS

Menu 1: Pan-fried salmon or pike-perch served with potato and vegetable parcels, finished with an oat and apple crumble for dessert. | 28 €/person

Menu 2: Seasonal soup with fresh bread, followed by fire-warmed Finnish bread cheese served with cream and cloudberry jam. | 23 €/person

Menu 3: Campfire-grilled sausages with accompaniments, followed by traditional Finnish stick-baked sweet bun served with cinnamon whipped cream. | 12 €/hlö

We are pleased to accommodate special requests and dietary requirements. Please also let us know if you would like traditional campfire-brewed coffee or tea with your dessert.

● INFO

Duration: from 45 min

Group size: 4 -12 person

From: 12 €/person

ENQUIRIES & RESERVATIONS p. +358 400 422 336

or Email myynti@nuutajarvenlasi.fi.

Availability:

Year-round

What's included?

The contents of your selected menu.
Alcoholic beverages are not served in the kota. Should you wish to have non-alcoholic beverages, please indicate your preferences when making your reservation.

Special requests:

The path to the kota is not fully accessible.

What to bring?:

Please wear clothing suitable for the weather and season.

Meeting point:

Nuutajärvi Glass's kota: You can pick up maps to the kota at Pruuki Bistro restaurant.

